

County Court.

Getting Ready for the June Term.
The June term of the Caledonia county court will convene here on Tuesday, June 6, and as it is a grand jury session it promises to be longer than the winter term. Judge Loveland Munson will preside with Hon. T. A. Meader and George P. Eastman as associate judges. Sheriff Winch will be in charge for the first time and the list of jurors he has drawn appears below.

Thirty-seven cases are set for trial on the jury calendar as follows: Dominic Costa vs. V. V. Lawrence; Abel Hartson vs. Charles S. Ranney; Alexander Greer vs. V. V. Lawrence; Charles L. ## County C. E. Union.

The Caledonia County Christian Endeavor rally was held at Passumpsic, Saturday, all but three of the 14 societies in the county reporting.

The rally was opened at 9:30 o'clock with a prayer service led by Rev. O. E. Hardy, of East Burket. Greetings were extended by H. J. Park, president of the union, and a response was made by E. Dwight Coolidge, first vice-president.

Three junior societies have been organized during the past six months, according to a report presented.

An address on "Junior Work" was given by the Rev. Emily C. Woodruff, pastor of the Congregational church at St. Johnsbury Center. This was followed by a conference on "Junior Work, Its Importance to the Betterment and Enlargement of the Church and Society."

The afternoon session was opened with devotional exercises. Rev. H. J. Kilbourn of Bradford spoke on "The Evangelistic Movement" and a conference was held on "Evangelism—Its Needs and Scope." A conference on "Missions" was also held. The principal address was given by Rev. C. S. Crane, field secretary for Maine. J. E. Underwood of Hartland, third vice-president of the state union spoke on "Baltimore and Its Conference."

No evening service was held but supper was served to the visitors.

East St. Johnsbury.

Capt. Edward F. Griswold has placed a fine monument in the family lot in Grove Cemetery. It is of Scotch granite and came from Scotland all complete except the lettering.

Those interested in wild flowers may like to know that Miss Julia Scott recently discovered quite a freak of nature in the form of a red trillium with nine sepals instead of three, the usual number.

Mrs. J. A. Ramage is spending a week with friends in Boston.

Mrs. Daniel Quimby was taken worse last week and is now very low with no hopes of recovery.

The Ladies' Society will meet with Mrs. H. O. Lyon, Friday afternoon.

Annual Church Meeting.

Pythian Hall was transposed into a delightfully cozy reception room, Thursday, by an attractive arrangement of palms, carnations and wild flowers, and the addition of a couch, chairs, tables and rugs gave it a very homelike appearance. Rev. and Mrs. James A. Thompson of St. Andrew's church received their friends from four to six o'clock, and punch and dainty refreshments were served by Misses Beatrice S. May and Abbie C. Watson.

Soon after six o'clock over 200 members and friends of the parish sat down to the first annual parish supper and during the supper hour Gagnon's orchestra with Miss Florence Harriman at the piano, furnished very acceptable music.

Following the supper a social time was spent preceding the business hour. The business of the evening consisted of reports by the clerk of the vestry, George F. Cushman; the treasurer of the church, Herbert W. Blodgett; the assistant superintendent of the Sunday school, D. Dean Patterson; the secretary of the Rector's Aid society, Miss Anne Carr; and the ex-treasurer of St. Margaret's Guild, Miss Abbie C. Watson, all of which were very encouraging. During the past year the debt of the parish has been largely increased, the Sunday school membership has been increased by 57, and the work of the ladies' societies has been very helpful socially and financially. The rector read his report, which contained practical information and suggestions and showed that he had improved every opportunity for helpful parish work since coming to St. Johnsbury. The election of officers, and delegates to the annual diocesan convention to be held at Woodstock in June, resulted as follows:

Vestrymen, D. Dean Patterson, Elisha May, Herbert W. Blodgett, George F. Cushman, L. P. Harriman, William S. Boynton, L. N. Smythe, W. H. H. Robie, James Ritchie, Fred G. Bundy, W. H. Morrison.

Delegates, William S. Boynton, L. N. Smythe, George F. Cushman, Fred G. Bundy, Alternates, W. H. H. Robie, C. B. Weeks, John McCutcheon, Thomas Rickaby.

The vestrymen organized by electing the following officers:

Senior Warden, D. D. Patterson. Junior Warden, Elisha May. Treasurer, Herbert W. Blodgett. Clerk, George F. Cushman.

Quite free and informal discussion was entered into and many evidences were shown that such a public meeting added to the social, religious and practical interest in church affairs.

Bishop's Visitation.

The capacity of St. Andrew's church was again taxed to its utmost, Friday evening, and a large part of the congregation was accommodated with extra seats, the occasion of the visitation of Bishop Niles of New Hampshire, who confirmed a class of 41 candidates. Rev. Mr. Mead of Lyndonville assisted Rev. James A. Thompson in the service, the bishop also taking part. Preceding the presentation of the candidates by the rector, the bishop gave a short address, instructive to the class, and to all who heard it, concerning the rite of confirmation, taking his theme from Acts viii:14-17. After the rite had been conferred Bishop Niles preached a strong sermon from the text "I Will Give Thee a Crown of Life," explaining that while this means that we must be faithful until death comes, it also means that we must be faithful, even though it brings us unto death. He continued in a very interesting and helpful way to speak of the principal factors in our lives in the order of their importance—devotion, integrity and helpfulness, quoting instances from the Bible illustrative of each. Prefacing his remarks he read a tender tribute to Bishop Hall of Vermont, expressing sympathy for his recent serious illness, thanks for his recovery to health, and a keen sense of his appreciation of ability and strength in the House of Bishops.

Another Attraction.

The Roth Moore Stock Co., which plays here in the Stanley Opera House during the week of May 29 needs no introduction to the theatre goers of St. Johnsbury. Palmer Moore and Miss Katherine Roth, who control the leading roles have been recognized favorites through the New England States, and are supported by an exceptionally strong company. The pieces presented during the engagement here are the best plays that are presented by any repertoire company in the country.

Woman's Association Officers.

At the annual meeting of the Woman's Association of the North church Friday afternoon the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. Charles P. Carpenter. 1st Vice President, Mrs. W. C. Tyler. 2d Vice President, Mrs. J. W. Sault. Secretary, Mrs. P. F. Hazen. Treasurer, Mrs. C. A. Stanley. Department Directors: Foreign missionary, Mrs. A. B. Noyes; home missionary, Mrs. George M. Gray; social, Mrs. F. E. Potts; sewing, Mrs. R. G. Cheney.

At Summerville.

Mrs. Hannah Taft is visiting in Sutton. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bond were in Burlington last week.

Miss Belle Russell is the guest of Mrs. Humphrey.

Union Mission Study.

The Dux Christus meeting Friday p. m., May 26, will be of special interest. It is in charge of Mrs. Robert Mackinnon and Mrs. W. C. Tyler. Mrs. George M. Gray, who has recently visited Japan, will give her personal impressions of Japanese women. Mrs. H. N. Wood will tell what Christianity is doing for the girls and women of Japan. The new feature will be a Question Class of many ladies, telling briefly of Samurai women, the peasant women, the position of the Japanese mother, their houses, flowers, music, embroidery and lacquer work. The committee hope for a large attendance.

GRIPING PAINS

Stomach ailments, characterized by severe griping, twisting pains and sudden paroxysms, such as colic, cramps, cholera infantum, cholera morbus and diarrhoea, are best cured by that century-old remedy

Increased Telephone Business.

Connections will be made this week through the Citizen's Telephone Exchange at Barnet with the Molly's Falls Telephone Co. of Cabot, a corporation which has about 250 phones in Marshfield, Plainfield, Cabot, Peabach, Walden and Groton; also with the West Barnet Telephone Co., which has 50 and will soon have 100 phones installed. This gives these companies a good outlet up and down the east side of the state from White River Junction to Sherbrooke, giving them a chance to connect with over 5000 phones.

A trunk line is to come into the Barnet switch board from Chelsea way and another from Hardwick to St. Johnsbury in the near future. The Citizen's Telephone and Telegraph Co. has calls for more lines and more phones than they have ever had in one season before. The people evidently believe in patronizing a home industry. Wires have been run from Melndoes to Barnet and the business that has formerly been done at the Melndoes switch board will be transferred to Barnet, making it more convenient to handle the business, which is fast increasing. A line has been built from East St. Johnsbury through Chesterfield with the following subscribers: H. V. Severance, 77-S; George Ailes, 77-A; W. B. Bennett, 77-B; C. F. McGaffey, 77-M; H. C. Woods, 77-H; B. C. Woods, 77-G.
